

A detailed black and white map of a section of the Warsaw Ghetto. The map shows a network of streets, including 'Główna' (Main) and 'Kanał' (Canal). Buildings are represented by various symbols and numbers. A red dot is placed on the map, indicating a specific location. The map is oriented with North at the top. The text 'Główna' is written vertically along a street, and 'Kanał' is written horizontally along a canal. The map is surrounded by a border, and there are various numbers and letters scattered throughout, likely representing street names or building numbers. A red dot is located near the center of the map, near the intersection of 'Główna' and 'Kanał'. The map is a historical document, likely from the early 20th century, showing the layout of the Warsaw Ghetto during the Nazi occupation. The map is a detailed representation of the area, showing the streets, buildings, and the canal. The red dot is a key feature, marking the location of the 'Ghetto'.
